CLERK'S ALERT

Superior Court Clerk Launches New Website

As a part of the county-wide website refresh endeavor, the Superior Court Clerk's Office, also known as the King County Department of Judicial Administration, will be launching a new website to improve the experience and accessibility for our customers. The link to the new department landing page will be <https://kingcounty.gov/en/dept/dja>.

The new site, which will launch July 8, 2023, is part of a King County effort designed to ensure consistent user experience across all King County digital platforms, and to lower barriers for users with disabilities and those who don't have access to high-bandwidth internet.

The new site also features more direct and intuitive navigation, centering on the most frequently used content. The website includes a new Frequently Asked Questions page that contains useful links to both clerk information and related topics.

Customers who have bookmarks from the old site will be re-directed to the corresponding content on the new site. Customers should update their bookmarks upon redirect.
