CLERK'S ALERT

Public Webinars

The King County Law Library, in collaboration with the King County Clerk's Office/Department of Judicial Administration, King County courthouse departments, non-profits, and local attorneys will be hosting Q&A webinars to provide answers to common legal questions.

Registration is free but limited. Questions must be submitted in advance via a webform (available upon registration). Questions may be rephrased or generalized to avoid giving specific legal advice – this session is intended to only provide legal information.
