CLERK'S ALERT

Filing of Electronic Wills Now Available in E-Filing

In compliance with RCW 11.12.460, as of May 16, 2024, wills that are signed with an electronic signature and conform to the Uniform Electronic Wills Act may now be electronically submitted to the King County Superior Court Clerk's Office for deposit into the King County Will Repository. This also applies to Will Only filings (the filing of a will after death of a testator) when no other action needs to be taken. Wills that do not conform with the Electronic Wills Act and are not electronically signed must still be filed in person or through the mail.

For more information regarding the Will Repository and how to electronically submit a will, please visit <https://kingcounty.gov/en/dept/dja/courts-jails-legal-system/court-forms-document-filing/will-repository>.
