

How to Respond to a Domestic Violence Protection Order

Use this packet if you want to respond to a Petition for a Domestic Violence Protection Order.

Talk to a lawyer if you can

These instructions have been developed by the King County Superior Court Family Law Information Center. They provide legal information only and are not intended to be a substitute for legal advice.

Facilitators cannot provide legal advice or complete your forms for you. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms.

- You can get information about their services and a list of low-cost and free legal resources at <https://kingcounty.gov/en/court/superior-court/courts-jails-legal-system/court-programs-children-families/divorce-custody-adoption/family-law-facilitators>.

Step 1: Fill out these forms

All of these forms can be downloaded at: www.courts.wa.gov/forms

Form Name	Form Number	Notes	Completed
Declaration of (name): _____.	FL All Family 135	Tell the court your side of the story.	<input type="checkbox"/>
You may want to include other evidence, such as police, court or hospital records may be turned in on your behalf. Refer to this information in your Declaration and attach a copy of the documents to your Declaration.

Make copies of your paperwork.

- Original set to file with Clerk's office
- Copy 2 is to serve on the other party or attorney
- Copy 3 you will keep for your records

Step 2: File your original forms with the Clerk's office

When: As soon as possible before the court date.

Where: Clerk's Office (Room 2C in Kent and E-609 in Seattle) OR you can file your case online on the Clerk's website at: <https://kingcounty.gov/en/dept/dja/courts-jails-legal-system/court-forms-document-filing/filing> . If you have questions about e-filing call 206-477-3000 or email eServices@kingcounty.gov.

What: The originals of all papers from Step 1.

Step 3: Have the other party served

What to serve: A copy of all the documents from Step 1.

When: As soon as possible before the court date.

How to serve

If the Petitioner is represented by an attorney, serve the attorney with a copy of the documents from Step 1 by your court date. After you have delivered or mailed the forms to the attorney, fill out the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery form (FL All Family 112) and file with the Clerk's Office.

If the Petitioner is not represented by an attorney, someone over 18– not you– may mail or deliver a copy of your court papers to the other party. You may also hire a process server to serve the other party. The person who serves your documents fills out the Proof of Mailing or Hand Delivery form (FL All Family 112), and you file it with the Clerk's Office.

Step 4: Attend your Hearing

All protection order hearings are being heard virtually via Zoom. Two days before your hearing:

- Find the name of your case. The zoom link you will use to appear for your hearing will be to the right of your case number.

If you cannot access Zoom for your hearing you may also use the phone number provided to appear by phone. If you cannot go online to get the hearing information, at least two days before your hearing, call and leave a message at:
